

Investor Complaint – Suspected Investment Scam (Sample Intake)

Investor Complaint – Suspected Investment Scam (Sample Intake)

Reference: ZAVA-COMP-2026-0418 • Lodged via: Online complaint form • Channel: Email + phone follow-up

1. Complainant details

- Name: H. Caspit (placeholder; real names redacted under PDPA)
- Resident of: Centralia, ASEAN region
- Preferred language: English
- Best contact: 09:00–18:00 local time, email or mobile

2. Summary of complaint

Complainant alleges that an unlicensed party operating under the brand name 'Zenith Forex AI' solicited an investment of USD 12,400 through a private Telegram group. Returns of '8% per month, capital-protected' were promised. After two months, withdrawals were blocked and the operator stopped responding.

3. Timeline of events

- 2026-01-12 — First contact via Facebook ad linking to a WhatsApp number.
- 2026-01-19 — Onboarding call; complainant asked to download a sideloaded mobile app.
- 2026-01-22 — First deposit of USD 5,000 wired to a payment-aggregator account.
- 2026-02-08 — Top-up of USD 7,400 after seeing fabricated portfolio screenshots.
- 2026-03-15 — Withdrawal request rejected; account 'locked pending verification fee'.
- 2026-04-01 — Operator stops responding; group closed.

4. Evidence attached

- Screenshots of WhatsApp / Telegram exchanges (12 images).
- Bank wire confirmations (2 PDF receipts).
- Marketing video (MP4, 47 seconds).
- Copy of forged 'licence certificate' bearing what appears to be a recycled regulator seal.

5. Requested outcome

Complainant requests (a) refund of USD 12,400, (b) public warning naming the operator, and (c) escalation to the cyber crime unit. Complainant is willing to be interviewed and to provide bank records under subpoena.

6. Internal triage notes (for case officer use)

Apparent indicators of unlicensed scheme: guaranteed returns, sideloaded app, unverifiable licence, payment to third-party aggregator, social-engineering urgency. Recommend Tier-A red-flag classification and routing to Enforcement within 48 hours.