

Zava Group Employee Handbook (Edition 12 - 2026)

Approved by: Group HR Council, March 2026 | Effective: 1 April 2026 | Applies to: All Zava Group employees worldwide | Owner: Group Chief People Officer

1. Welcome to Zava Group

Welcome to Zava Group. As one of 28,000 colleagues across 9 divisions and 11 countries, you are part of a 46-year journey to build a diversified ASEAN champion. This handbook codifies the policies that protect you and that govern how we work together. It does not form part of your employment contract; for contractual terms refer to your Letter of Appointment.

2. Our Values and Code of Conduct

- Integrity above all - we act with honesty even when no one is watching
- Bold and pragmatic - we make decisions and own outcomes
- One Zava - we win as a group, not as silos
- Customer at the centre - we earn trust through service
- Sustainability mindset - we make decisions a 30-year owner would make

3. Working Hours and Leave

Leave Type	Entitlement	Carry Forward
Annual Leave (5+ years service)	21 working days	Up to 7 days
Annual Leave (2-5 years)	18 working days	Up to 5 days
Annual Leave (< 2 years)	14 working days	Up to 3 days
Medical Leave (with cert)	14 - 22 days (per MA1955)	No
Maternity Leave	98 consecutive days (per MA1955)	N/A
Paternity Leave	7 consecutive days	N/A
Marriage Leave	5 working days	N/A
Compassionate Leave	3 working days per occurrence	N/A
Examination Leave	5 working days per year	N/A

4. Performance and Compensation

Performance is measured against a balanced scorecard with four dimensions: Financial, Customer, People, Operational Excellence. The annual cycle runs Jan-Dec with mid-year check-in in July. Annual increments are differentiated and tied to performance rating. Variable bonus is funded by company performance and distributed against individual performance.

5. Remote and Flexible Work

- Hybrid working: minimum 3 days in office per week (Tue-Wed-Thu fixed core days)
- Flexible start: 07:30 to 10:00 with 8-hour working window
- Workcation: up to 4 weeks per year working from approved overseas location
- Compressed work week available - manager + HR business partner approval

6. Wellbeing

- Annual medical screening - fully paid
- Mental health hotline - 24/7 confidential
- Wellness allowance - MYR 1,800 per year (gym, fitness, dental)
- Onsite clinic at KL HQ + KL Sentral (weekdays 09:00-17:00)
- EAP coverage - 12 free counselling sessions per year for self + family

7. Code of Conduct

7.1 Anti-Bribery and Corruption

Zero tolerance. No employee may give or receive gifts, hospitality, or any form of advantage that may influence or be perceived to influence business decisions. Gifts received in good faith must be declared via the Gifts Register if their value exceeds MYR 250. Refer to the Group Anti-Bribery Policy (PL-COMP-014) for detail.

7.2 Conflict of Interest

Employees must declare actual, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest to their line manager and HR business partner. Outside directorships, employment, and material shareholdings (>5%) require prior written approval. Annual COI declaration is mandatory.

7.3 Confidentiality

Confidentiality obligations survive your employment. Disclosure of confidential information without authorisation is a serious misconduct subject to summary termination and legal action under contract.

8. Grievance and Whistleblowing

Speak Up Hotline (anonymous): 1-800-ZAVA-HELP or speakup.zava.com. Managed by an independent third-party (Deloitte). Investigations are conducted by Group Internal Investigation. Retaliation against whistleblowers is strictly prohibited and subject to disciplinary action.

9. Departures and Final Settlements

- Notice periods per Letter of Appointment - typically 1-3 months
- Pro-rata bonus payable if employed for full performance year
- Annual Leave encashment - up to 7 days payable
- Exit interview with HR business partner mandatory
- Return of Group assets (laptop, phone, badge) within last working day
